The Gandolfo phoned me a little after noon to tell me that about a week ago a man had phoned to say that something was going to happen to his wife and that today it did. She left for work, did not get there, they had not heard from her, and he had phoned the police, who had no report about anything happening to her.

HW 11/29/82